So the report was concurred in.

Mr. Bowie, chairman of the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made unfavorable reports upon the following petitions, viz:

The petition of the commissioners and a number of citizens of Charlestown, in Cecil county, praying for an act to authorise them to sell a house and lots therein mentioned;

Also, the petition of sundry citizens of Cecil county, praying the legislature to enact a law to prevent the distillation of grain into spirituous liquors;

Also, the petition of sundry citizens of Somerset county, praying a repeal of the law establishing Magistrates' courts in the several counties in this State;

Also, the petition of sundry citizens of Montgomery county, praying additional compensation to constables;

And, the memorial of Henry A. Jamison, praying the passage of an act remunerating him, the said Jamison, for losses sustained in repeated malicious and idle prosecutions against his negroes;

Which said reports, were severally read the first, and by a special order the second time, and severally concurred in.

Mr. Coombs, chairman of the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, made an unfavorable report upon the petition of Margaret Moore, widow of John Moore, a soldier of the revolution, praying for a pension;

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, and concurred in.

Mr. Coombs, chairman of the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, made a favorable report upon the petition of Margaret Lee, widow of Dudley Lee, a soldier of the revolution, accompanied with the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay to Margaret Lee, the widow of Dudley Lee, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, the half pay of a private during her life, as a further remuneration for his services during the revolutionary war.
